ISLANDS COUNCIL K OF C AND ADOPT A SOLDIER

PROGRAM Our U.S. soldiers who remain in Afghanistan or are new arrivals have very few Post Exchanges to purchase basic toiletries such as shower gel, shampoo, soap, shaving cream and other regular sized basic toiletries. They depend on family support or, if they have no family or disadvantaged families, they depend on organizations like the Knights of Columbus to help them. There will be a box in the narthex for any contributions to our soldiers or you may leave them at the parish office.

The Council on International Educational Exchange (CIEE) partners with hundreds of families like yours to bring bright students from every corner of the world to the U.S. They are seeking host families in the Savannah area for their high school students arriving in August. Exchange students bring new perspectives that can open minds and create opportunities for engagement that strengthen schools and communities alike. Please contact Sarah Polo at 513-460-8643 or smlapolo@gmail.com for more information. If you are not able to host but can refer another family, please contact her. CIEE pays referral incentives for those that generate student placements.

CAMP VILLA MARIE runs from June 1 until August 7 for children ages 6-12. Weekly themes and registration can be found online at diosav.org/ymc or call Maggie Grimm at 201-4048.
