Adoration

with Jesus

in the Adoration Chapel

Dear Friends in Christ:

On Easter the Greeks greet one another with “Christos Anesti! Alithos Anesti!” Filipinos say “Si Kristo ay nabuhay! Siya nga ay nabuhay!” Germans might say, “Christus aus auferstanden! Wahrhaft auferstanden!” We say, in English, “Christ is Risen! He is truly Risen!”

The Resurrection is the center of redemptive history. Having offered himself as the sacrificial victim on the cross, having taken upon himself the guilt of us all, the bodily resurrection of Jesus signals the triumph of God’s power over the forces of evil.

Not only is it a triumph for God the Father and His Son, Jesus Christ, we, because we have been incorporated through Baptism into Jesus’ life, death, and resurrection, are given the promise of eternal life. No mere human could have accomplished this – only God could restore what God had originally given us.

The French theologian Rene Girard writes about the power of the innocent victim in breaking the contagion of violence and evil: “Christ does not achieve this victory through violence. He obtains it through a renunciation of violence so complete that violence can rage to its heart’s content...” and it will have no lasting effect. The raging will only continue to show the emptiness of violence, the hopelessness of violence, the uselessness of violence.

The Cross and Resurrection of Jesus mark the definitive turning point in human history. What was spoken of by the prophets came to pass in the person of Jesus Christ. Born in Bethlehem (see Micah 5:1-2), born a descendant of David (see Jeremiah 23:5), one who was rejected (see Isaiah 53:1-3) would, against any human rational thinking, be the one to redeem Israel and the world. To be made sharers in this mystery is God’s gift to us. To receive that gift and to believe in the power of the Cross and Resurrection, and to ACT on that belief, can be our gift to God. Each time we allow grace to turn us from sin, each time we find reconciliation through the sacrament of Confession, each time we act with love and kindness, patience and compassion, we extend the power of the Resurrection. Christ is Truly Risen! May his resurrection be for all of us the definitive moment of our lives.

Peace and Blessings,

Fr. Michael J. Kavanaugh

SOCIAL APOSTOLATE NEEDS OUR HELP

Due to the public health emergency declared by Governor Brian Kemp and the CDC recommendation to limit gatherings to 10 people or less, some changes had to be made at the Social Apostolate. Effective immediately, the thrift store is closed for sales. Donations of clothing and household items will not be accepted. For now, the Crisis Intervention Office and Shower Program will remain open, but clients will be seen by appointment only. Please contact them at 233-1877 to schedule an appointment. Although they are no longer able to serve meals in their dining room, they would still like to continue to feed the homeless of downtown Savannah by providing them with a bag of food they can use to prepare lunch at their campsite, but they need our help! They are in need of sliced bread, peanut butter, canned tuna, soup, spaghetti or ravioli, crackers, peanuts, and bottles of water. Donations of food can be dropped off at the Social Apostolate Monday-Friday 8:30 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Catholic Leadership INSTITUTE

Along with all of the parishes and missions in our diocese, St. Peter the Apostle Parish will be participating in a parish-wide survey about discipleship which is being conducted by the Catholic Leadership Institute. The purpose of this program is to assist parishes, dioceses, and bishops in making choices about the needs of the parishes and the clergy who serve them. Please help us by participating in a 10-15 minute survey online at disciplemakerindex.com. The survey will ask you to reflect on your own spiritual growth and enable you to provide feedback on our parish's efforts to help you grow. All responses will be confidential and the parish will only receive information about the community as a whole.
